

Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG)

Dedicated to sustainability, social responsibility and strong governance, MPFA engages with the MPF industry to promote the integration of ESG principles for responsible fund management, while facilitating industry readiness to align with international sustainability disclosure standards. Together with resource-efficient practices, staff participation in charity and volunteering initiatives and the adoption of high standards of corporate governance, these efforts contribute to sustainable development, driving meaningful long-term impact.

