I INTRODUCTION AND INTERPRETATION

Introduction

- I.1 With the enactment of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes (Amendment) Ordinance 2012 (Amendment Ordinance 2012), the existing administrative arrangements for the regulation of MPF intermediaries' sales and marketing activities will be replaced by a new statutory regulatory regime on 1 November 2012. As such, the "Guide to Registration as MPF Intermediaries" document issued in October 2008 will no longer apply after 31 October 2012.
- I.2 The "Guidelines VI.1 - Guidelines for MPF Intermediary Registration and Notification of Changes" (Guidelines VI.1) issued by the MPFA takes effect as from 1 November 2012. The Guidelines VI.I set out various prescribed forms for use in registration and the specified qualifying examination(s) required to be passed (if applicable). The Guidelines VI.I also provide guidance on the submission of these forms and the notification of change in address and contact details of MPF intermediaries.
- I.3 In addition, the "Handbook on MPF Intermediary Registration" (Handbook) is issued to outline certain main provisions of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Cap 485) (MPFSO), as amended by the Amendment Ordinance 2012, relating to registration matters, for example, the basic approval criteria (see Part V) and application procedures for a person who wishes to carry out regulated activities (see Part VI). It also provides information on other registration related matters such as the MPF intermediaries' duty to give notification of changes in circumstances (see Part VIII). It aims at assisting the existing and potential MPF intermediaries to understand the relevant legal requirements and providing an overview of the relevant procedures involved.
- I.4 The Handbook does not have the force of law and should not be interpreted in a way that would override the provision of any law.
- I.5 The Handbook is complementary to, and does not replace, any legislative provisions applicable to, or codes or guidelines issued by the Authority or the industry regulators in respect of, regulated persons.
- I.6 The Handbook provides certain general information on registration and other related matters under the MPFSO only. Please obtain your own legal and/or professional advice if you have any doubts on these matters.

Withdrawal of Consent to a Subsidiary Intermediary for Carrying On Regulated Activities for a Principal Intermediary

VIII.5 (a) If a principal intermediary intends to withdraw the consent to its subsidiary intermediary/intermediaries for carrying on regulated activities for itself under section 34ZG(1), the principal intermediary is required to complete a physical form [Form INT-5, Notification of Principal Intermediary's Withdrawal of Consent to a Subsidiary Intermediary / Application for Approval of Attachment of a Subsidiary Intermediary to a Principal Intermediary] or submit an electronic form [eForm INT-5B, Notification of Principal Intermediary's Withdrawal of Consent to a Subsidiary Intermediary] for notifying the MPFA about the withdrawal of consent to its subsidiary intermediary/intermediaries for carrying on regulated activities for the principal intermediary.

(b) A withdrawal of the consent takes effect on the date on which a principal intermediary gives the MPFA notice in the Form INT-5 or eForm INT-5B (the notification date) or if a later date is specified in such a notice as the date on which the withdrawal is to take effect, that later date (section 34ZG(2) of the MPFSO). The approval of attachment of a subsidiary intermediary to the principal intermediary is revoked on the date on which the withdrawal takes effect.

(c) A principal intermediary should notify the MPFA as soon as possible when it decides to withdraw consent for its subsidiary intermediary to carry on regulated activities for it. For example, in the situation when its subsidiary intermediary leaves the principal intermediary, as the principal intermediary is still required to secure compliance of the statutory requirements by the subsidiary intermediary for the period between the subsidiary intermediary leaving the principal intermediary until the approval of attachment of the subsidiary intermediary to the principal intermediary is revoked, i.e. until at least up to the date the MPFA receives notification about the withdrawal of consent. Therefore, it is in the best interests of a principal intermediary to notify the MPFA about the withdrawal of consent as soon as possible.

(d) Where a person is not approved as being attached to any principal intermediary because of the withdrawal of consent to the attachment of the person to the principal intermediary, the MPFA may revoke the registration of the person as a subsidiary intermediary, (i) if no application has been made under section 34V(1) of the MPFSO for approval of attachment of the person to any principal intermediary within 90 days after the date on which the revocation takes effect because of the withdrawal of the consent to the attachment or (ii) if such an application has been made within 90 days after the date on which the revocation takes effect because of the withdrawal of the consent to the attachment, and the MPFA has rejected the application.

- (e) Once the registration of a person as a subsidiary intermediary has been revoked by the MPFA, the person will need to make a new application for registration as a subsidiary intermediary if the person would like to be attached to another principal intermediary.
