

MANDATORY PROVIDENT FUND SCHEMES AUTHORITY

III.3 Guidelines on Eligible Overseas Banks

INTRODUCTION

Section 11 of Schedule 1 to the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes (General) Regulation (“the Regulation”) provides that the funds of a constituent fund may be deposited with an authorized financial institution or an eligible overseas bank.

2. Section 13 of the Regulation provides that a bank is an eligible overseas bank if -

- (a) it is a bank incorporated outside Hong Kong and not holding a valid banking licence under the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155); and
- (b) it satisfies a minimum credit rating set by the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority (“the Authority”), based on the credit rating of the bank as determined by an approved credit rating agency.

3. Section 6H of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (“the Ordinance”) provides that the Authority may issue guidelines for the guidance of approved trustees, service providers and other persons concerned with the Ordinance.

4. The Authority hereby issues guidelines to specify the minimum credit rating that needs to be met by an eligible overseas bank, based on the credit rating of bank as determined by an approved credit rating agency. Guidelines I.9

set out the names of approved credit rating agencies.

ELIGIBLE OVERSEAS BANK

5. For the purpose of section 13(b) of the Regulation, an overseas bank is an eligible overseas bank if the short-term debt securities (less than one year) issued by the bank meet at least one of the following credit ratings, determined by the respective approved credit rating agencies.
